

THEY CALL US OLD SCHOOL!

Because we are:

- Working to welding industry standards for over 30 years
- Following welding procedures and practices that are proven, and never compromising the job
- Identifying cracking, wearing in the tooling for our customers and keeping them informed and involved every step of the way
- Educating our customers in all our capabilities and offering alternatives at every opportunity
- Pricing top-quality welding competitively with your budget in mind, and with a quick turnaround
- No shortcuts
- Stand behind our weld

*They call us OLD SCHOOL—
We wouldn't want it any other way!*
